

“Relationships are not always easy, but it helps to have the right support”

Family law issues are often emotional and stressful for you, your family and those closest to you. Our Sydney family lawyers have the experience and skills to help you navigate the family law system so you can focus on putting your life back together financially and emotionally, in the most safest and practical way.

We listen carefully and gain a thorough understanding of your family situation and priorities, so we can offer clear advice, options, strategies and recommendations.

OUR SERVICES

- Divorce
- Property settlement
- Parenting arrangements
- Child support agreements
- Binding financial agreements
- Spousal maintenance

With the exception of divorce, the above services apply for both married and de-facto couples.*

WHY CHOOSE US

We understand how complicated and emotional family law matters can be. We always take the time to listen to your concerns to achieve the best outcome for you and your family.

With experience across all areas of family law, our lawyers capably resolve matters in the most appropriate and effective way – whether that's by negotiation, mediation, arbitration or litigation.

We are always up-front and direct when it comes to costs and will endeavour to resolve your family law matter early by negotiation, mediation, or settlement prior to the final hearing, in an effort for such matters to be both cost and time effective for our clients.

Our lawyers are professional, friendly and empathetic. Whether your matter is for parenting, property, spousal maintenance, divorce or a financial settlement, we have the right experience to assist.

OUR FAMILY LAWYERS

Shane Neagle
Principal Lawyer | Director

Shane leads Ivy Law Group's Family Law team and has a reputation as one of Sydney's leading divorce lawyers. His clients appreciate his dynamic approach, integrity, persistence – and his deep sense of fairness and empathy. He understands the emotional support that families in stress require and appreciates being able to put people at ease about their family law disputes or predicaments.

Karissa Hannigan
Senior Lawyer

Karissa is a highly capable and experienced family lawyer who has been practising since 2012. She helps clients negotiate fair outcomes in family law matters that can involve the parties reaching an agreement on property and / or parenting matters. Praised as hard-working, patient and empathetic by both colleagues and clients, she believes the reward of working in family law comes when she sees the relief and joy her clients' experience when she resolves their issues or dispute.

Pamela Bachour
Senior Lawyer

Pamela is an experienced family lawyer, advising clients on a range of family matters including parenting, property settlements, divorce and binding financial agreements. Understanding that family law matters can often be stressful and emotion-charged, Pamela really takes the time to listen to her clients, understand where they are coming from and what they would like to achieve from the situation, so that she can properly advise them about the realities of the family law system and likely outcomes.
